

I wanted to express my concern that LPFM might impact my ability to listen to K-LOVE radio. This is a daily part of my family's (8) lengthy commute. The teaching is instrumental, and the positive and encouraging music provides the background music that we fill our house with. It's a great place to advertise, and a valuable place to learn of companies we want to support. Don't let this station die by changing your policies! Thanks, Scott